You have all of your e-mail ... somewhere.

e-Mail is growing in importance and in volume. Many organizations are just beginning to recognize the need to implement policies. Until recently, many organizations were advised that the best policy to mitigate potential risk was to delete corporate e-mail. Enron, WorldCom and other recent cases have significantly changed that position. Still the vast majority of businesses have yet to develop, let alone implement, an e-mail strategy. Enabling Technologies Corp., leaders in messaging architecture, can help your organization develop and implement a corporate e-mail strategy. Enabling Technologies will assess your firm's messaging infrastructure and customize e-mail parameters fitting your specific requirements. Our experienced engineers can implement an effective policy that involves minimal manual intervention.

Utilizing the "best in breed" EAS, Exchange Archival Solution software, Enabling Technologies can provide your firm with numerous benefits such as the elimination of PST files, Disaster recovery for Exchange and the ability of full text e-mail searching against all users and folders. EAS also enables you to migrate to Microsoft 2000 faster and more reliably. With all of the e-mail already archived you won't have to restore from tape back-ups if any data is lost in the migration!

Be Proactive! Contact Enabling Technologies Corp. today to discuss implementing your e-mail retention policy before government regulations force your hand! You may call us at 800.923.4310 or send an e-mail to sales@enablingtechcorp.com. We would be delighted to discuss your organizations IT challenges and offer our expertise to solve them!
